Welcome

ADC Pictures

Even though weather and snow days affected some of our outings and entertainers we still had a lot of fun. We visited the Memory Café in Stoughton, breakfast at Dunkin Donuts, bowling at Boulevard lanes, The Physics and Mustard museum, Lady Bug the Clown, Jim Turk, and the Ukulele players.

Thank you

Thank you to Amber who spent the last 8 weeks at the day center as an OTA student intern. We have so enjoyed your time here. We wish you the best of luck as you go to your next placement and then onto graduation and then your first job as an OTA. Please take time to say Thank you to Amber before her last day on March 10th. You will be missed!

Reminder

If you are unable to attend the day center on any given day due to illness or other reasons please notify the day center staff and leave a message with Kristin Hutson 826-8106. Thank you!

Morning Snack

Just a reminder the day center will no longer provide the breakfast snack in the morning. Instead Terri will be on the floor doing buses and morning activities such as music, tables games, bells, and trivia. The kitchen will open at 11:15 for lunch. No coffee or tea will be available until lunch. If you choose to bring a breakfast item in please remember that the kitchen will not be open to prepare it.

Kitchen Corner

Another month has passed and we are getting closer to Spring and baseball! A big thanks to Rosa and Shirley for bringing in special afternoon snacks! We all appreciated it!
